My dear Mr Tennyson

I hasten to acknowledge the receipt of the Cheque, for which I sincerely thank you.

I am glad you liked the restraints, and that the expression is such, as to persuade you, that all your kindness has not been misplaced. It is true it is not always possible to judge of character, by the physiognomy, nevertheless there are many faces easy to decipher.

I am not shortsighted naturally, but my sight is over taxed sometimes, and requires magnifying glasses Re 10' The other mentioned tint.

With kindest remembrances
believe me to remain
Yours very sincerely
James Keats de Llanos
